8th April 2011

Forthcoming Holiday Dates

We break up today for two weeks, returning to school on Tuesday 26th April after the Easter Bank Holiday weekend. Please note that we are closed on Friday 29th April and Monday 2nd May due to Bank Holidays, and Thursday 5th May due to polling day.

Money

When paying for school dinners, breakfast and after school clubs, we would appreciate you sending in the correct money please. We are struggling as we don't always have change in the office. Additionally, if you don't pay on a Monday morning, we are unable to send home the change until the following Friday.

The Uniform Centre

The Wakefield Uniform Centre will be open from 9th April. The address is 88 Kirkgate, Wakefield, tel: 01924 366633.

The Royal Wedding (in school!)

On Thursday 28th April 2011 Horbury Primary School will be celebrating 'The Royal Wedding'. During this joyous occasion the school will be hosting a range of 'Royal Wedding' activities and festivities. A non-uniform day will be taking place and your child is requested to dress up as a bride, groom, page boy, bridesmaid or a wedding guest. Each class will be holding a street party to celebrate this occasion and invitations have been sent out to each child indicating the food to bring and share with their class.

School Dinner Price Increase

After the holidays, the price of a school dinner is going up to £1.80 per day. As we are returning to a three day week, dinners will cost £5.40 that week. The following week will also be the same. The amount for the half term will be £37.80.

Y2 Kenya Morning

On Thursday Year 2 enjoyed a Kenya morning. We had the chance to ask Mrs Carter about her trips to Kenya to help us find out more about the wonderful place. We then tried some delicious Kenyan fruits, including avocado, kiwi and guava. We loved looking at Mrs Carter's photographs and would like to thank her for enriching our learning in Year 2.

Wakefield Council Pride Awards

Our Special Needs Assistant Julie Parker, has been nominated for a pride award because of the work she does with Daisy King. Julie has worked with Daisy right through from Nursery to Year 6. If you would like to vote for Miss Parker, you can do so by using the online voting form www.wakefield.gov.uk/CouncilandDemocracy/Prideawards/2011publicvote.htm.

Emailing prideawards@wakefield.gov.uk, ringing Wakefield Council's Contact Centre on 0845 8 506 506, or by posting the name of your winner to Pride Awards, FREEPOST NEA5394, Room 8 Town Hall, Wood Street, Wakefield WF1 2BR.

Good luck Miss Parker!

Dance Club Y5 & Y6

House Competitions

We have had some lovely weather this week and due to this we have held a couple of house competitions. In the year 6 house cross country Elm overcame the other houses to win the trophy.

In the year 5/6 house football which was held on Tuesday we had 50 children competing against one another. After all of the teams played one another it left Ash to play Elm in the final, and Beech to play Willow for 3rd place. Willow beat Beech 4-1 to finish 3rd whilst Ash beat Elm in the final 2-1. Player of the competition was Cameron Finch and the joint top goal scorers were Sam Holmes and Jack Reynolds.
